The 1968 Hi-Echo staff, headed by Jan Dimick and advised by Mr. Dunn and Mr. Shamp, has introduced a new look to BGHS yearbooks. From the original psychedelic cover to the many new features to the last witty caption the staff has tried to make the Hi-Echo an echo of your past memories. Staff members made use of an hour work session each day to assemble pictures and comments of the events of this school year. To the Class of 1968 the staff expresses the desire that this yearbook is a complete and accurate account of the year you made great.

Jan Dimick, Editor of the 1968 Hi Echo.

TILT!

Must be deadline time.

Student Council, an open door to student activities, opinions, and government.

This year's president, Art Claflin, congratulates the 1968-69 vice-president, Pam Ecker.

Council

The 1967-68 Student Council experienced another active and successful year. Led by Art Claflin, council embarked on numerous projects. It sponsored a Sophomore Orientation program, planned in part by the seven members who attended OASC summer workshops. Social activities included a Hootenanny, Homecoming, a Masquerade Ball, a Christmas semi-formal, and a Sadie Hawkins Day dance. Student Council also handled Pep Week preparations, the Food Drive, Safety Week in conjunction with WCASC, the Clothing Drive, and Teacher Appreciation Day. Special services to the school and community included a $100 donation to the committee for passage of the School Levy, the purchase of Audio-Visual equipment for the school, blanket tosses for the March of Dimes, and active participation in the Steve Beattie Fund Candy Sales. Regular services sponsored by Council were Bobcat-of-the-Week, Student of the Month, and the staffing and operation of the Concession Stand. Numerous exchanges were held with area schools, however, the most memorable one was with Russelville, Kentucky. The year culminated with the election of the 1968-69 president and vice president, Ed Whitacre and Pam Ecker respectively. All in all this year has been most successful and council has proved to be a most successful part of the school and community.

The peak of fall activity occurred with the celebration of Homecoming 1967. Queen Debbie Retterer and her court reigned as the Bobcats defeated Lima 15—14. Athletics

The B.G.H.S. sport season of 1967-1968 was not one of the best for the high school's athletes. Only two squads ended up on the winning ledger. The Bobcats had five new coaches at the start of the season and seemed to have problems adjusting to different techniques.

The football season started in mid-August for about 50 boys. These boys showed desire and hustle under new head coach Stu Stearns. The squad finished 3-6 but a few of these games could have gone either way. With the return of almost the entire backfield, the 'cats are looking forward to a better season.

The cross-country squad suffered its first losing season since the sport was initiated at B.G.H.S. But with the return of this year's top runners, the Bobcats are looking for a winning season.

Coach Bob Gwin's basketball squad finished 12-8 and won the L.P.C. for the second year in a row. With the return of the leading scorer and rebounder, the future is bright.

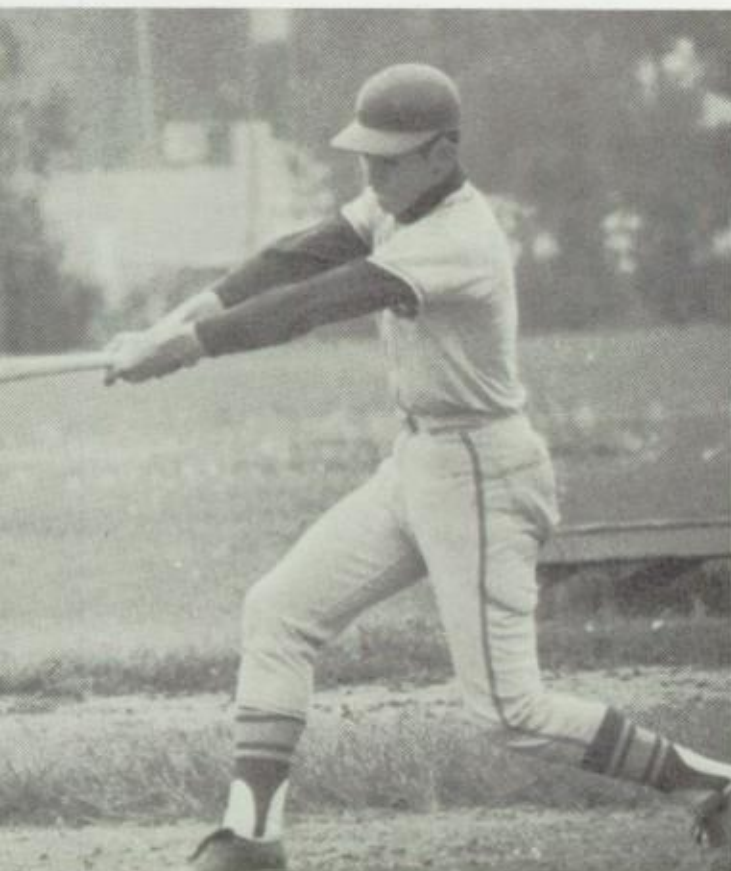

Wrestling suffered a losing season but with Coach Frank DeFrench's initiation of a junior high program, the future seems to be changing.

Track was hindered by lack of depth and injuries. Nevertheless, the spectators saw many fine individual performances. The track squad should be strong next season.

The baseball team got off to a rough start but then finished strong winning six out of the next eight games. With 14 returning lettermen, things look pretty good.

Golf finished the sport season with a fine record. The golfers finished third in the district and third in the G.L.L. The golfers were coached by Richard Fischer.

The athletes gave the fans much to cheer about in the 67-68 season. With the rugged competition in the G.L.L., fans will have more to cheer about in the coming seasons.

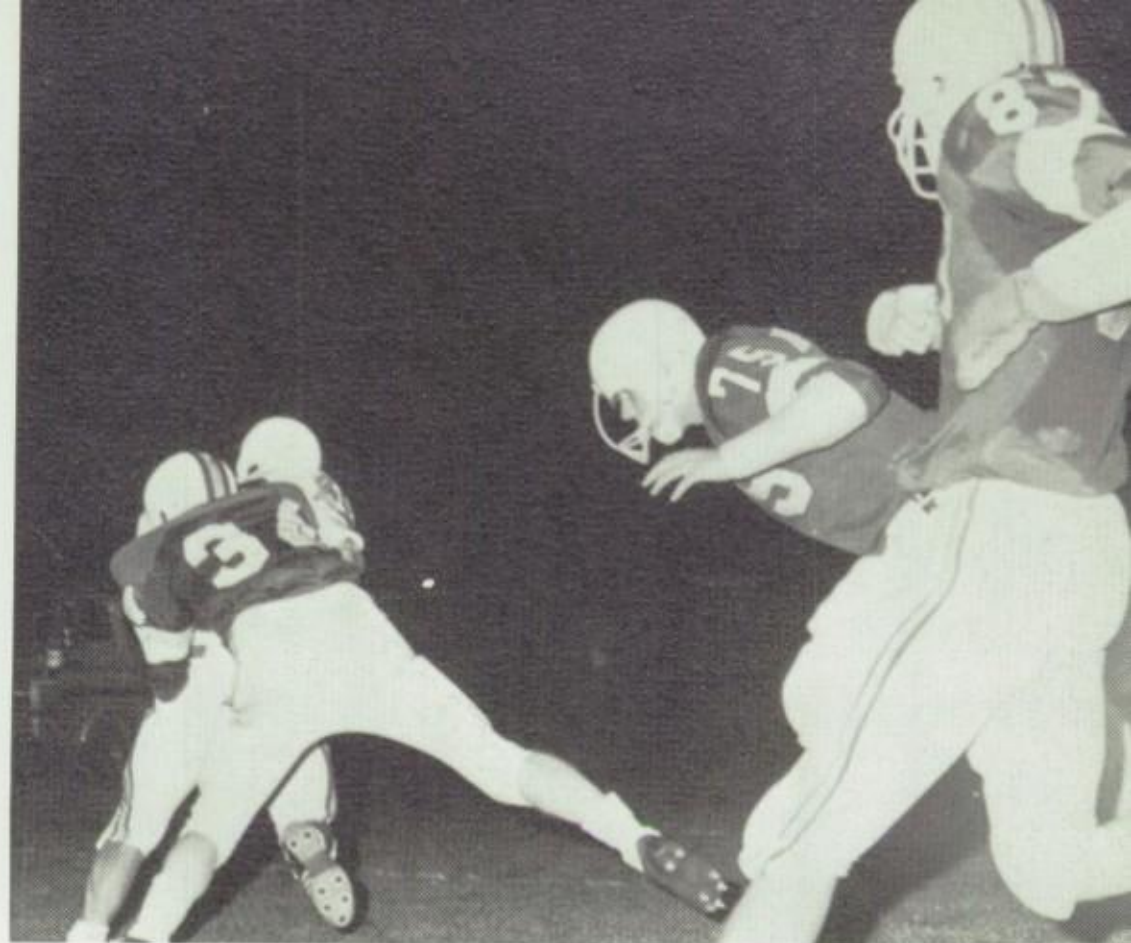

Football

Under the leadership of newly appointed head coach, Stu Stearns, the Bobcats with a small nucleus returning from the previous year, completed an admirable season. Finishing second in the Lake Plains Conference and defeating champions Bedford of the Great Lakes League were two of the highlights of the 1967 Bobcat football season. Coach Stearns stated at the conclusion of the season that "The overall record does not show the effort and desire put forth by the boys. I was pleased with the effort put forth by the seniors especially, and the number of experienced boys returning next year." The Bobcats led by Co-captains Steve Hoare and Tom Canterbury, had several players selected to the All-LPC team. Also, the Bobcats, who are not yet in the G.L.L., had several honorary players selected to their All League Team. The season was further highlighted by the selection of D. L. Perry and Denny Smith as co-captains of the 1968 team.

Owing to three one-point losses, Bowling Green's Cross-country team suffered its first losing season since the sport was initiated in 1956.

The team led by 4 lettermen, Bill Lanning, Ken Bowers, and co-captains Bob Yeager and Dick Small, started the season well and had high hopes, but ran into a lot of tough competition, finishing with a 5—6 record.

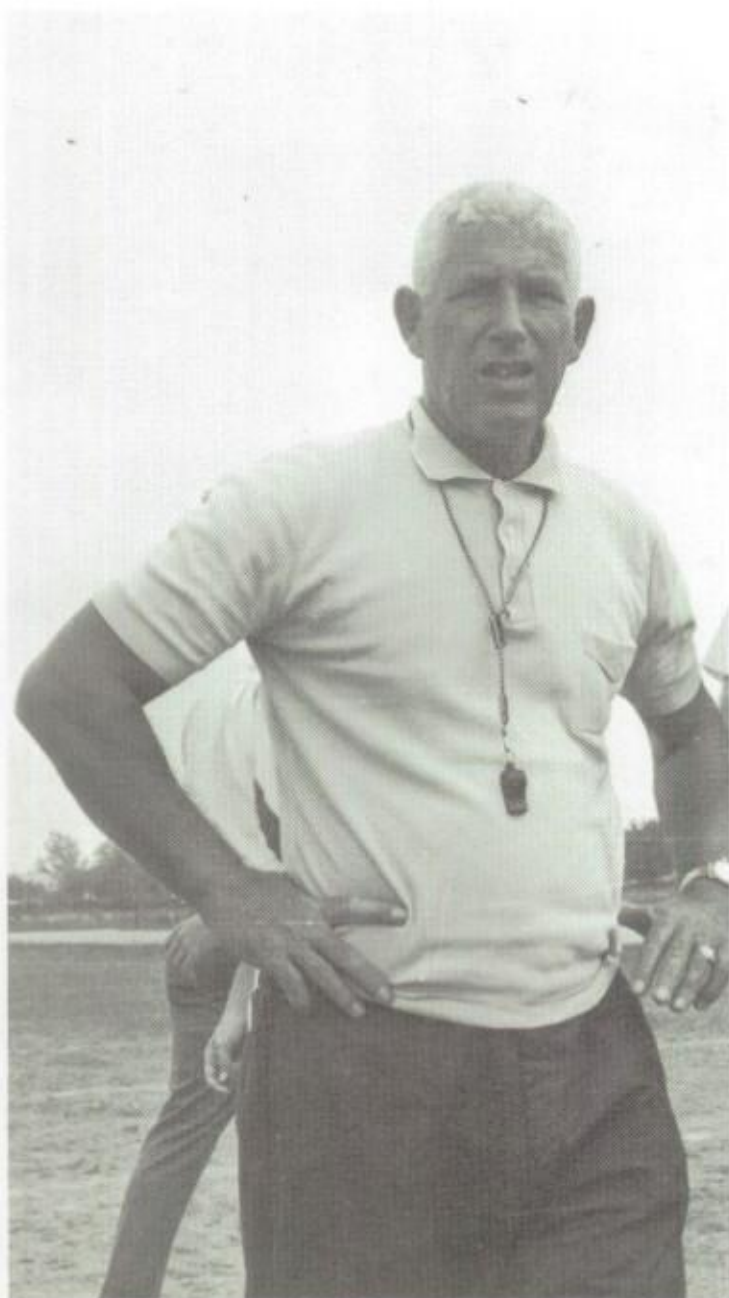

Highlights of the year were the third place finish in the GLL meet and the third place in the district, with the team narrowly missing a berth in the regional meet.

Looking forward to next year, Dave Moon, Bill Lanning, and Ken Bowers were elected to be tri-captains for next years squad, with Al Rendina, Rob Althausen, and Bob Jackson the other returning lettermen.

Coach Bob Gwin in his first year at the helm of the Battling Bobcats, guided his squad to the final L.P.C. Championship. The 1967-68 cagers had an 11 win and 7 lost season record, (4—0 in the league), and picked up one win and one defeat in the tournament. While playing such powerhouses as Lima Shawnee, Middletown and Lima Senior, the Bobcats were an "off and on" ballclub throughout the season, and on several occasions proved to be a very tough outfit. Coach Gwin felt that illness and injury held down the team's potential.

The end of the season was marked with Tom Canterbury being voted M.V.P. and Honorary Captain. Doug Joyce led the team in scoring, (15.4), and in foul shooting percentage, (73%), and Denny Smith showed the way in rebounding, (175). Also Gus Sonnenberg was chosen most improved player. Although the Bobcats will be losing four senior lettermen, the hopes for next year's season rests on the two returning lettermen, a strong bench and promising reserves. The B.G. followers will be looking forward to an exciting 68-69 campaign, as the Bobcats are entering the rugged G.L.L.

The wrestling squad showed their spirit throughout the season by cheering the basketball squad to victories.

After losing a large part of their last years wrestling team, the Bobcats fought their way to a 1—9 record in this rebuilding year of 1967-1968. Although lacking overall depth, the Bobcats had several outstanding wrestlers. Tom Otley and Steve Jackson were both champions in their weight divisions in the Lake Plains Conference. Honorary Co-Captains Brent Johnson and Tom Otley, along with Coach Frank Defrench, led the Bobcats through their first season in the extremely challenging Great Lakes League. For the first time also, Bowling Green started a Junior High program which should help in getting more depth on the BGHS squad in years to come. This fact, along with eight returning lettermen, help to make the Bobcats wrestling future look very bright.

Steve Jackson, most improved wrestler; Tom Otley, most valuable wrestler; and Brent Johnson, honorary captain, pose with Asst. Coach Richard Fischer.

Coach Croft keeps an eye on the track team.

Track

The 1968 Bobcat track squad, under the direction of the new head coach, Bill Croft, finished the season 2—7. The Bobcats were hindered by injuries to key performers at crucial times. The Bobcats had to rely on inexperienced underclassmen a majority of the time. But this should help in coming years for Bowling Green High School track. The Bobcats will have problems replacing Steve Hoare, John Helm, Bob Manley, and Dave Zellers, to name a few. But Terry Dewyer, Randy Ballard, and sophomore Greg Shaffer should be able to fill their shoes. If the Bobcats can find the depth needed on a track squad and if some seniors can be counted on for leadership, the 'cats could have a fine track season.

Baseball

When Bowling Green High School's baseball team took the field this year, the team lacked experience. Coach Bob Vannett in his first year as head coach had only three returning lettermen to lead the Bobcats onto the field. Even though the team had a losing season, they showed hustle and desire throughout the campaign. With the return of 12 lettermen, the hopes of a district title, and a trip to state are high. Tim Lord, Andy Anderson, Ron June, and Denny Smith received special awards at the Spring Sports Potluck. Tim and Denny, along with the other 10 lettermen, should make baseball be one of the strongest sports at B.G.H.S. next year.

Golf

The Bowling Green High School's 1968 golf season can be termed a success. The Bobcat golfers ended the season 11—6—1. The Bobcat golfers finished third in the district golf meet. Rick Faulk was district medalist and took a trip to Columbus to participate in the state golf tournament. Rick finished in the top twenty at Columbus. The golfers also finished third in the GLL golf meet and again Rick captured medalist honors. Rick was honored at the Spring Sport Banquet by receiving the Clayton Cook Award. With the return of D. L. Perry (two year letterman), Steve Coale (two year), Mike Robinson (one year), and Doug Joyce (one year) the Bobcats are "driving" to a "green fairway" to Columbus in 1969.

FACULTY

Mr. Boyd Martin—Principal of B.G.H.S.

"Would Mr. Dunn please report to the office?"

"Our Leader"

Dr. Robert McCracken—Superintendent of Schools.

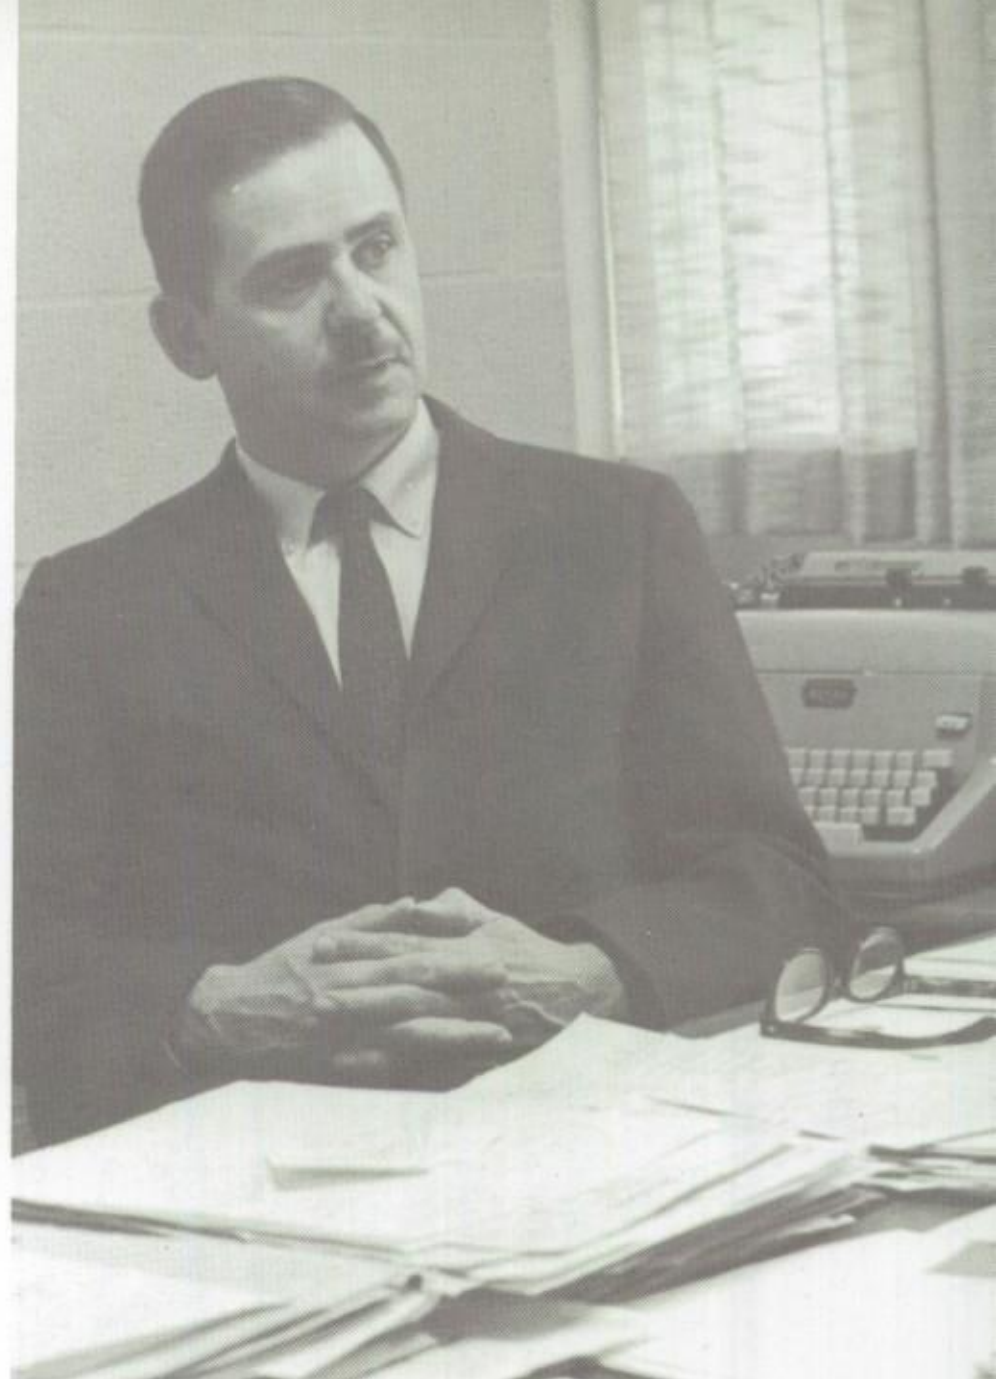

This year's administration, through their guidance and encouragement, made possible a successful school year. Led by Mr. Boyd Martin and Dr. Robert McCracken the administration made decisions that made this school one of the most progressive in the area. As principal, Mr. Martin helped make 1968 the greatest year ever at B.G.H.S.

A stitch in time saves nine—clouds that is.

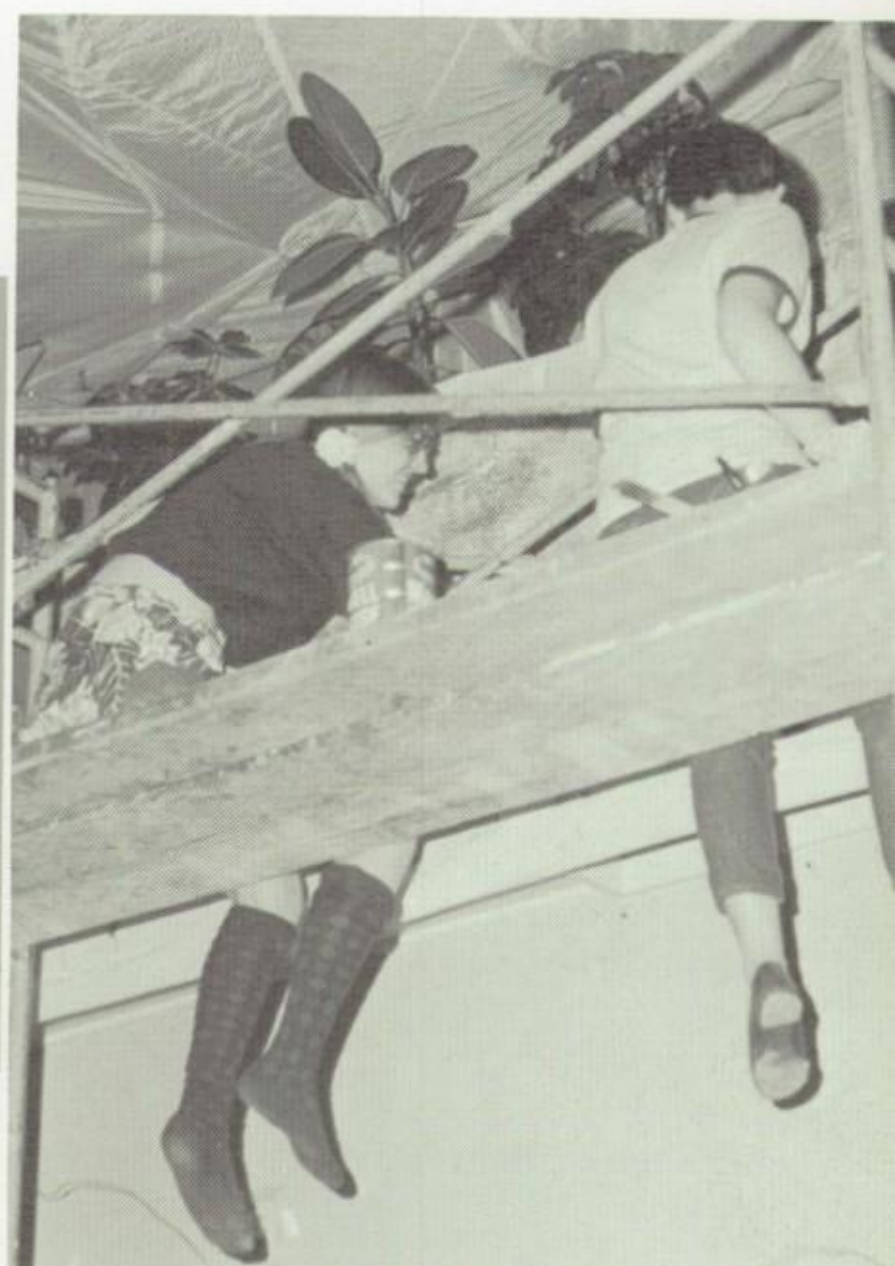

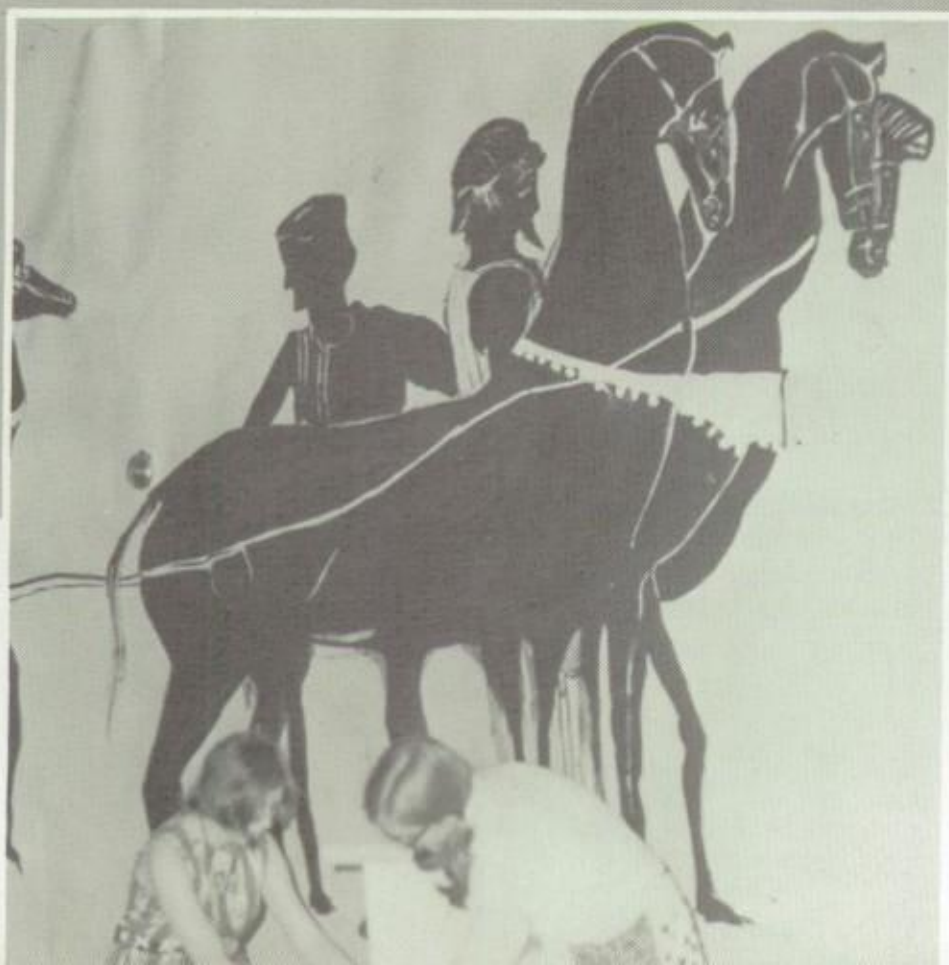

One final moment of relaxation before the big night.

Planning for the Prom

Putting the Junior Class on a pedestal.

Betty and Lissy have a dangling conversation while painting.

Rolayne and Lillian racing to finish in time.

The president and their dates lead the Grand March.

Jan and Barney dancing under the Athens moon.

Joyce and Bobbie proudly escorted by their special boys on their special night.

After many months of hard work by the Junior Class of 1969, the Seniors were able to spend an enjoyable evening under the "Moon Over Athens." The Juniors and Seniors made their way to Athens through a hallway decorated with pillars and Grecian busts. Athens was a city of huge pillars and murals, decorated with a garden of gay flowers and a flowing fountain under a sky of blue. The parents did a commendable job in decorating the cafeteria in the Roman color gold. The Juniors and Seniors were able to enjoy an evening of dancing and entertainment topped off with a midnight buffet. After a quick change of clothes the students traveled to the ice arena where they were able to choose among watching a movie of themselves at the prom, ice skating, or square dancing. An early breakfast ended the prom activities and the Juniors and Seniors returned home full of happy memories of a successful Prom.

Posing for a picture in the Garden of Love.

Rick adds magic to the entertainment.

Jack did not want to horse around during Prom night.

Pam and Scott dancing under the Athens Moon.

Just think, a few hours before . . .

September—John Arnold takes nap between Senior Class Meetings.

October—Pat Biesiot managing Hi Echo finances.

Students of the Month

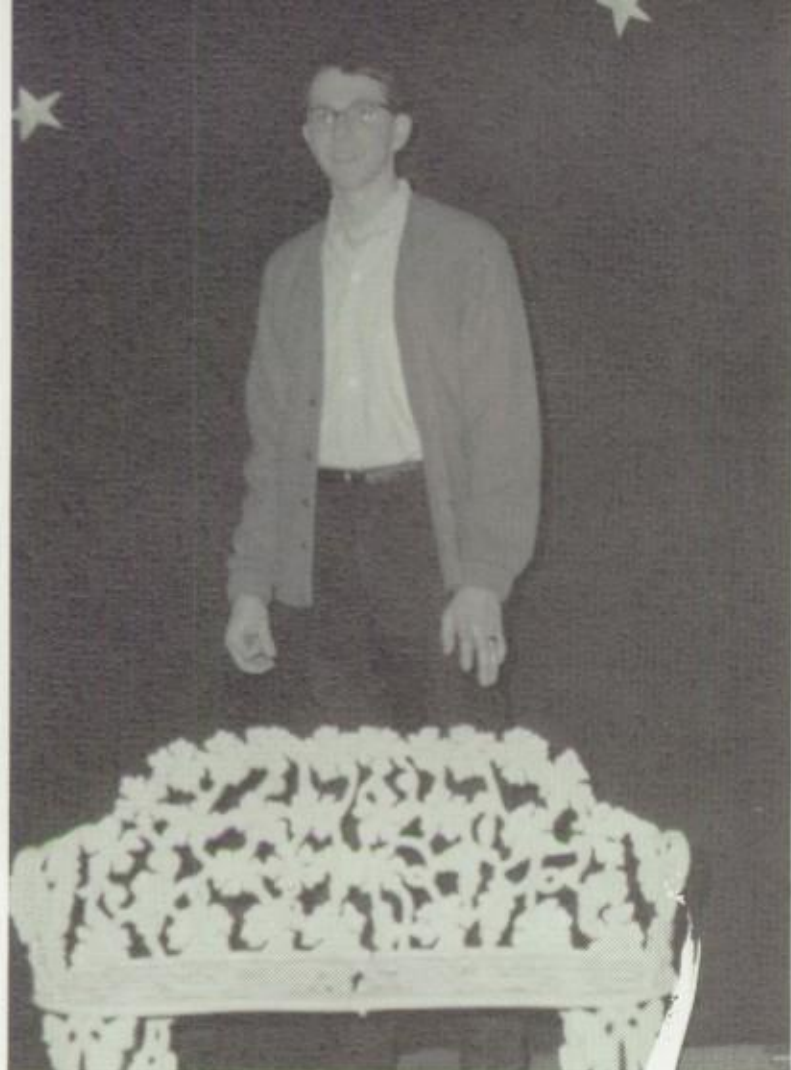

December—Sally Skinner sings and asks "Where is Love?"

November—Chris Anders tries on an outfit collected during the Clothing Drive.

March—Amy Gamble, varsity cheerleader, yells for action.

January—Rich Ellsworth poses after a successful Madrigal show.

April—David Marsh contemplating computer programming.

February—Ann Imbrie does her part for Pep and Spirit.

June—Madrigal, Kathy Cheek poses for the photographer.

May—Becky Ricketts watching and announcing a track meet.

Guest speaker was Dr. James Bond, vice-president of B.G.S.U.

Well, only about ten minutes longer and we'll be finished.

Becky Ricketts was given the principal's award for her participation in class and school activities.

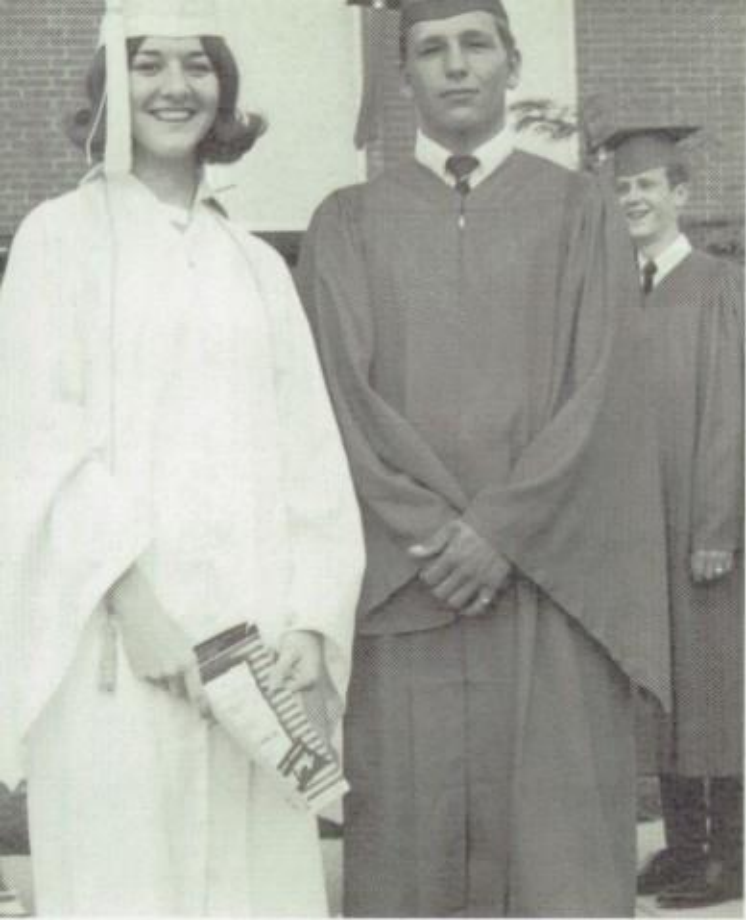

Graduation

Tom Canterbury receives his diploma from school board president, James Hof.

Pat Biesot finished her high school year with a perfect 4.0. Congratulations, Pat.

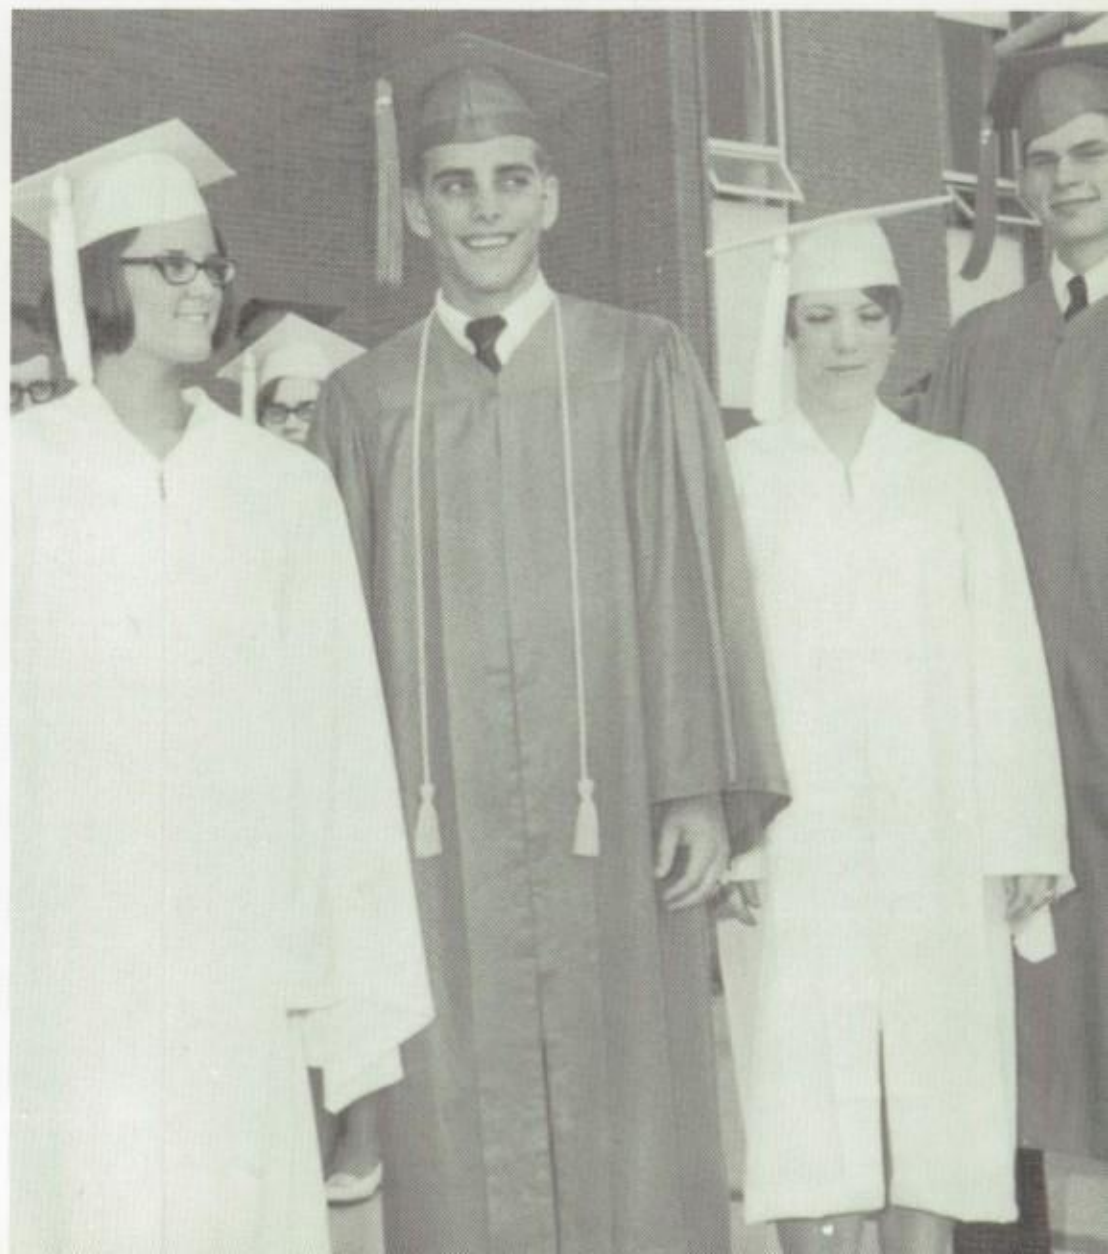

Marie and Jim stop to pose before receiving their diplomas.

Mr. Martin keeps the group under control.

Jane Nelson seems to be contemplating her three years of high school.

Seniors are caught clowning around as usual.

The Staff of the 1968 Hi Echo would like to thank the patrons whose advertisements appear on the following pages.
